Here is a summary of the comments provided by parents in the "further comments or questions" section of the survey:

- Positive Feedback on Leadership: Several parents praised Mr. Clark, the new head teacher, describing him as a positive influence and a "breath of fresh air." They noted that he is approachable, has improved the school atmosphere, and fostered a fun yet professional environment.
- Gratitude and Appreciation: Many parents expressed their gratitude towards the staff and the school for their support and dedication to their children's development. Some specifically mentioned they would miss the school after their child leaves for secondary education.
- Support for Individual Needs: Parents appreciated the efforts made by teachers and staff to support students with special educational needs (SEN) and to use individualized education plans (IEPs) for development. Communication from the school regarding these needs was praised as excellent.
- Positive School Environment: Comments indicate a general sense of satisfaction with the school's environment, recent improvements, and the implementation of new tools, such as the Class Dojo app, which parents found to be a valuable addition.
- Suggestions for Improvement: Some parents offered constructive feedback, such as expanding sports club opportunities to include all students, regardless of skill level, and improving the quality and variety of after-school clubs.

Overall, the feedback highlights a positive perception of the school's recent changes, leadership, and support for students, with a few areas suggested for further improvement.
